

Geneva, September 28, 2021

Spineart SA, a global spine company with a commercial presence in 50 countries and a direct sales network in the United States and Europe, today announced a planned management reorganization.

In order to accelerate Spineart's international growth, Jérôme Levieux and Stéphane Mugnier-Jacob, Spineart's founders and current co-CEOs, have decided to reorganize the company's leadership team enabling them to focus on highly strategic activities.

Effective January 1, 2022, Jérôme Trividic, currently group Chief Strategy Officer and President US, will be named group CEO. Jérôme Levieux and Stéphane Mugnier-Jacob will continue to support actively the team as exclusive senior advisors and Board members.

Jérôme Trividic has been working at the side of the founders for the past 10 years. He was first based at the Geneva headquarters before relocating to the US in 2014 to lead the US subsidiary. Prior to joining Spineart, Jérôme was an investment banker at Lazard in London, specialized in healthcare. He holds a Master degree and an Engineering degree from Ecole Polytechnique, Paris.
